Though we travel the world over to find the beautiful.

we must carry it with us or we will find it not.

someday it's enough to be different or alone

and it isn't enough to hide in a crowd.

Some try being different, and some try being the same.

College life is the grand make believer the bitter reality
 the party that never ends
 the race that is never won.
 Is it Alice in Wonderland standing on her head talking about Pogo about calculus With Hail Alma Mater in the background and the feel of peanut butter sticky on her thumbs and a beer glass standing on her floor.
 It is a retreat which the world can never touch
 A place of peace and silence where the moment of international crisis is the point after touchdown
 The most unforgettable character is—yourself.
 The religion is faith
 The creed is hope
 The motto is "next week we study"
 Never before not after are you so close to reality, and yet so vitally withdrawn from it.
 The sorrows are deep deathly sloughs of despair and dejection
 The loneliness comes creeping and overwhelms you
 And there is no one and nothing to fill The racking,
 the void,
 And then you have a lemon soda
 And there is a joy and ecstasy, the love That spills and pours down the avenues of your life, reaching even counsellors and department heads.
 The rustling of leaves
 And the string of cars glistening on a rainy night that Fill you with peace and love That no cathedral or poem can ever give.

 They simply are, these four years
 And we never will them
 We sometimes appreciate them
 But we spend the rest of our lives reliving them.
